

RESIDENCES AT UTAH OLYMPIC PARK

Located at the base of the Utah Olympic Park Nordic Jumps in Park City, Utah, Olympic hopefuls train here for the Winter Olympics games. 30 AP6-Pro units were deployed to service the entire complex, replacing the old APs one-for-one.

KOPFC

Kearns Oquirrh Park Fitness Center is a community recreation center located in Kearns, Utah. A one for one swap of all 21 existing WiFi APs to Alta Labs AP6-Pro APs has vastly increased performance speeds and coverage.

BE MORE

The Be More Complex in St. George, Utah is a multi-use recreational facility. It's the number one sports complex in Southern Utah, they average 500+ devices connected on the weekends and during tournaments.

FITNESS CULTURE

Fitness Culture is a gym in St. George, Utah, founded by one of the most recognizable faces in fitness, Co-Owner, Steve Cook. Two Alta Labs AP6-Pro Access Points were installed and WiFi performance is solid throughout the complex.

WILLOW GLEN

Willow Glen RV Resort in Cedar City, Utah recently deployed over 40 Alta Labs AP6-Pro-Outdoor Access Points across over 40 RV stalls. InfoWest partnered with Alta Labs to ensure the WiFi coverage blanketed every single bay.

THE HILL

The Hill is a new luxury apartment complex in South Bend, Indiana. Located just ¾ of a mile away from Notre Dame University. 73 Alta Labs AP6-Pro access points and 8 S24-POE switches were installed and AltaPass™ was utilized.

ISAACS ON THE QUAY

A popular restaurant pub in Ipswich, one of England's oldest towns, contacted LinITX/Multithread to have them help improve their WiFi. LinITX/Multithread installed 24 Alta Labs AP6-Pro WiFi 6 access points and configured 2 VLANs.

NORSK RAKFISK FESTIVAL

Fagernes, Norway is home to the RakFisk Festival. An annual celebration, the 3-day fest celebrates the Norwegian traditional dish, RakFisk. The festival used 7 Alta Labs access points to provide WiFi to fans, ticket scanners, vendors, and artists.

